

El Palace Barcelona launches a charity project called “El Palace Charity Stay: You Stay, You Care, You Rock!!”

- The Barcelona hotel puts 5 stay vouchers up for sale to raise funds to be used for the research of the Covid-19 “Yo me Corono” and the “Banc dels Aliments de Barcelona” to alleviate the economic effects on families
- The project has the collaboration of Ronnie Wood, legendary guitarist of the Rolling Stones and the companies Mayan Luxury Spa, Mvips and Hotel Treats

Barcelona, June 2020.- The Covid-19 worldwide pandemic has caused a global health and economic crisis. Aware of this overwhelming circumstances and wanting to give back as a humble member of our society, El Palace Barcelona wants to contribute through a series of initiatives to the institutions fighting for the development of vaccines and medication against the virus, and donating to those in our local community who have seen their income depleted due to this catastrophe.

Amongst these initiatives, the hotel will be partnering with Hotel Treats, The Mayan Luxury Spa, MVIPS Chauffeurs and Ronnie Wood, the legendary Rolling Stones guitarist, to offer five vouchers for an " EL PALACE CHARITY STAY: YOU STAY, YOU CARE, YOU ROCK" experience, that you can buy through Hotel Treats and which will include:

- A two nights stay at the El Palace Suite by Ronnie Wood for two people. This suite is not only inspired, but also decorated by Ronnie Wood himself, and has served as his home when visiting Barcelona.
- Delicious breakfast in our restaurant
- Luxury transfer in & out
- Mayan Luxury Spa Package including the use of the ancient temazcal and a 50-minute Holistic treatment for two people.
- Welcome amenities
- The voucher can be enjoyed for up to 24 months after the reopening date of El Palace Barcelona, to offer extra flexibility to future guests and it is subject to availability.

All proceeds from these packages will be donated to www.yomecorono.com, a research and development project focused on finding market specific solutions to combat the pandemic in the city of Barcelona and “Banc dels Aliments de Barcelona”, an entity that provides food to those people in the city who need it.

ABOUT EL PALACE BARCELONA

El Palace Barcelona opened its doors in 1919 as the former Ritz Hotel in Barcelona, being the only one that César Ritz designed and was not in a capital. Not only the most illustrious people of Catalan high society, but also personalities from the world of monarchy, aristocracy, art and national and international culture such as Salvador Dalí, Ronnie Wood, Josephine Baker or Joan Miró (who currently have their own Art Suite dedicated).

The current El Palace Barcelona, is a hotel located a few meters from the main highlights of the city: the exclusive shops and emblematic modernist buildings of Paseo de Gracia, Plaza Cataluña or the bustling Ramblas.

120 carefully decorated rooms, 7 event rooms, an emblematic hall, the Bluesman Cocktail Bar with its live music and prestigious cocktail bar, the rooftop garden of the seventh floor and a careful gastronomic offer, along with its membership in the prestigious hotel association Luxury hotels “The Leading Hotels of the World”, place El Palace Barcelona at the top of the luxury hotel in Barcelona.

The new El Palace Barcelona, in addition, shows for a while, a younger and more daring spirit, with renewed and surprising proposals to attract not only the lodged guests but also the locals.

For more press information:

Arantxa Dominguez

Marketing & Communication Manager El Palace Barcelona

adominguez@hotelpalacebarcelona.com

Tel. 93 510 11 30

Clara Boronat

Marketing & Communication

cboronat@hotelpalacebarcelona.com

EL PALACE
BARCELONA